INDIA NATIVES WILL BOYCOTT BRITISH PRINCE

Advocates of Independence Plan
Time of Mourning During His Visit.

Sallendra N. Ghose, director of the American commission in India, today announced that he had received word from India that the Nationalist leaders would reject the overtures for a truce, reported in a dispatch from Calcutta, to have been made by the Earl of Ronaldshay, governor of Bengal.

"Only as free men can the leaders of India treat with the British," Mr. Ghose said. "By that I do not mean free in the sense of their being released from prison, into which more than 5,000 have been thrown in the last two weeks. I mean that the non-co-operative movement has reached the point where there will be no dealing with England until England surrenders to India rule the domains she has misruled and plundered for more than 160 years."

"Mahatma Gandhi has announced that the fight is to a finish and back of him are massed the vast majority of India's 320,000,000 people. 'Earl Ronaldshay's offer of a truce is a confession that the British fear the effect of the hartal—strike of employers as well as employees—that has been declared by the Nationalists for Christmas Eve, when the Prince of Wales is due in Calcutta. His move has failed. During the entire time the Prince remains in Calcutta, an absolute boycott will be maintained by the natives; all shops will remain closed, and instead of the people rejoicing at the visit of a ruler, they will observe the period as one of mourning."

"That is the present plan, and nothing will change it unless the British carry out the threat made last week to shell the bazaar if hartal was declared. If that is done then all Bengal will rise. Calcutta is the stronghold of the Nationalist Volunteers, and our men there are well prepared for eventualities. 'Earl Ronaldshay's proposal follows his return from Phari, in the Himalayas, where he conferred with the native rulers of Sikkim and Bhutan and the principal councillor of Tibet, to line them up with the British in event of a revolution. Principally he sought guarantees to have Chumby Valley, the road to Tibet and Western China, closed to prevent the importation of munitions to the Indian Nationalists. His offer of a truce, made on Monday immediately on his return to Calcutta, is evidence that his negotiations were not wholly satisfactory."

JUSTICE STAFFORD AIDS CATHOLIC MEMBER DRIVE

Justice Wendell Phillips Stafford of the District Supreme Court addressed a meeting of the men of the Holy Comforter parish at the new school auditorium Tuesday evening in furtherance of the drive now being conducted by the Holy Name society to add 5,000 members to the Washington section. Nearly forty new members were enrolled.

Patrick J. Hattigan, archdiocesan president of the Holy Name Society, announced that Archbishop Curley, of Baltimore, has accepted an invitation to attend the quarterly meeting of delegates to the Washington section, which will be held at Holy Comforter school January 23. The annual election of officers of the local section will be held on that occasion.

BISHOP H. C. MORRISON, M. E. CHURCH SOUTH, DEAD

LEESBURG, Fla., Dec. 22.—Bishop Henry Clay Morrison, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, died yesterday at the home here of his son. He was seventy-seven years of age, and was made a bishop in 1893.

Bishop Morrison was born in Montgomery county, Tenn., May 30, 1842. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church South and was appointed pastor of the First Church, Atlanta, Ga., in 1886. In 1890 he was elected missionary secretary and raised and paid off a debt of $140,000 of the board of missions of the general conference. He was elected bishop at the general conference in Baltimore in 1893.

Shop in the Morning, Please

In the Nick of Time—
1,400 Pairs of Women's
Merino Sport Hose
At $1.00 Pair

Think of this coming right at the very last minute—as it were—of the Christmas shopping program! Not only because of the class of merchandise offered, but the ridiculously low price! Why? Slight "irregulars," that's all. What do we call "irregulars"—why this lot consists of one leg being a trifle longer than the other or something immaterial like that. No actual damage, nothing to impair service or appearance.

They are ribbed styles in heather m. ures and some are drop-stitch effects. Owing to the attractive nature of this sale and the fact that they will be snapped up in no time, we are obliged to offer them just as they are. Sizes and colors not guaranteed complete, but so many kinds that you'll be fairly certain of getting what you want if you're here early.

First Floor—Lansburgh & Brother.

Sale of Silk Jersey Petticoats $3.45

Five hundred of them! Yes, right at the last minute of Christmas buying time at that! Petticoats are always acceptable to women and misses, because they are garments that are never superfluous, so why not add them to your list and save on each one you purchase?

Many styles of flounces, and the colors include combinations such as blue and green, peacock and American Beauty, rose and blue, black and gray, brown and gray, and many others equally pleasing.

Third Floor—Lansburgh & Brother.

Sale of Shoes For Boys and Girls $2.95

We set this sale for tomorrow because even if the new shoes are to be one of the Christmas gifts, they should be fitted as we fit children's feet—with every care for pedal development. These shoes are brown and tan calf, in Blucher and straight lace style. They are made for service as well as good appearance and have sturdy welt soles.

Give Housedresses

Save By Purchasing From This Lot at

$3.45

Formerly Priced $3.95 to $5.00

It is a good sign to note that many persons are buying the more practical, lasting things for Christmas, so we invite you early to this special offering of House Dresses which have had their prices pruned down to the low price named.

Gingham and Percale, in light and dark stripes, checks, novelty effects, etc. White pique collars, cuffs and pipings or of self weaves in contrasting colors. Extra sizes in the collection.

Third Floor—Lansburgh & Brother.

Sale! 500 Georgette Blouses

On Their Way Tomorrow at Each,

$2.95

Flesh, white, navy, brown, Mohawk and black. Although some of these blouses are from regular stock and marked at this low price, we did it to fill up a limited purchase from a manufacturer who allowed us a price concession which we pass along to you.

It is surprising how many different styles and trimming effects makers can get in a given number of garments, for we assure you there are almost as many kinds as there are blouses.

Beads and embroidery vie with lace trimmings in the struggle for supremacy, and we leave it to you which to choose. One or more in a pretty box for Christmas will prove a practical, pleasing and most economical gift.
